

BIENERT, MILLER & KATZMAN

A Professional Law Corporation

Shonine Wijayanayake

Shonine Wijayanayake joined the firm in 2010. She has extensive experience as a paralegal in both New York and California. Her experience includes complex commercial and civil litigation, patent and trademark litigation, Repetitive Stress Injury, asbestos, securities class action and derivative litigation and real estate, bankruptcy and matrimonial law.

Shonine was recognized as a contributor to the winning defense of IBM in numerous landmark Repetitive Stress Injury cases. She has worked on several Chapter 11 bankruptcies such as that of McCrory Corporation including its bankruptcy court and other litigation in addition to the disposition of numerous leases and multiple parcels of owned real property. She has also assisted in the internal investigations of major corporations.

Education

Fairfield University, B.A., History, 1992

New York University, Paralegal Diploma (ABA Approved Program), 1993

New York University, M.A., French Studies, 2001

Admissions

Notary Public (New York) since 2001